Deepening faith through Christian care

By Maggie FitzRoy

I was devastated. Nine years ago, I felt forced to resign from a job I loved, plunging me into an identity crisis, deep grief, and paralyzing fear. I didn't know what I had done to deserve it, what I was going to do next, or how I was going to pay my bills.

Fortunately, as a long-time parishioner of Christ Church, I had strong faith and believed in the power of prayer. So I went to see Father Bob Morris, who prayed with me, calmed me down, gave me valuable insights, and realized that I needed more than that. He asked if I would be open to having a Stephen Minister—a trained fellow parishioner who I could meet with once a month—and I said yes. I'm grateful I did. Over the course of a year, as my Stephen Minister and I met once a week, I gradually felt myself heal in her compassionate listening presence, caring, and prayer.

Stephen Ministry offers high-quality, one-to-one Christ-centered care to people experiencing life difficulties, including grief, medical crisis, family-caregiver stress, job loss, financial difficulties, divorce, family difficulties, and major life transitions. The church needs more Stephen Ministers (men and women), and a new training class begins in September.

Stephen Minister Madeleine Tavares says the 50-hour training course deepened her faith while teaching her to become a better listener, and put her compassion into action in helpful ways. For more information about Stephen Ministry contact Pastoral Care Coordinator Terri Brice at tbrice@christepiscopalchurch.org.

"Stephen Ministers are listeners and comforters," Tavares says. They don't attempt to fix problems, but through their training, learn how to ask questions that may help care receivers think differently. The meetings, always private and confidential, are centered around what the care receiver needs, which Tavares says is not always prayer. "This is a very practical ministry, and some people are angry at God," she says. Although, "God is always with me the times I'm doing this. Things come out of my mouth that I didn't think of myself."

"Being a Stephen Minister is extremely rewarding," Tavares says. "When you can see what you have done has helped, when you see change in a positive sense, it is very, very rewarding."

As a care receiver, I am extremely grateful for the time and comfort my Stephen Minister gave me. My life is better for it today.

Processional Hymn 637

How Firm a Foundation

Vs. 1, 2 & 4

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say than to you he hath said,
To you that for refuge to Jesus have fled?

'Fear not, I am with thee; O be not dismayed!
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

'When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply;
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

The Reading

Lector A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

11:1-3, 8-16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old-- and Sarah herself was barren-- because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, "as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore."

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Song PSB 127 O Christ the Same

V. 1

O Christ the same, through all our story's pages-
Our loves and hopes, our failures and our fears;
Eternal Lord, the king of all the ages,
Unchanging still amid the passing years:
O living Word, the source of all creation,
Who spread the skies and set the stars ablaze;
O Christ the same, who wrought our whole salvation,
We bring our thanks for all our yesterdays.

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. 12:32-40

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

"Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

"But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Communion Music

PSB #69 Here I Am, Lord

1. I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard My people cry.
All who dwell in deepest sin, My hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear My light to them? Whom shall I send? Refrain.

Refrain: Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard You calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if You lead me.
I will hold Your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne My people's pain.
I have wept for love of them, they turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone, give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak My word to them. Whom shall I send? Refrain.

I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them, my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide, 'Till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give My life to them. Whom shall I send? Refrain.

PSB #15 Blessed Assurance

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine! Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God, Born of His spirit, washed in His blood.

Refrain This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior, all the day long;
Repeat previous two lines once.

2. Perfect submission, perfect delight;
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels, descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love. Refrain.

3. Perfect submission, all is at rest;
I, in my Savior, am happy and blest:
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love. Refrain.

Recessional Hymn401

The God of Abraham Praise

Vs. 1-3

The God of Abraham praise, who reigns enthroned above;
Ancient of everlasting days, and God of love;
The Lord, the great I AM, by earth and heaven confessed:
We bow and bless the sacred Name for ever blest.

He by himself hath sworn: we on his oath depend;
We shall, on eagle-wings upborne, to heaven ascend:
We shall behold his face, we shall his power adore,
And sing the wonders of his grace for evermore.

There dwells the Lord, our King, the Lord, our Righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin, the Prince of Peace;
On Zion's sacred height his kingdom he maintains,
And, glorious with his saints in light, for ever reigns.

Dismissal

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia.

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.
